

DEPARTMENT OF CHILD HEALTH NURSING

Child health nursing is concerned with the comprehensive nursing care of young children and family, which accentuates the quality of care. The faculty of department of child health nursing is promised to act together to uplift the student development to achieve well being of the child and family according to the changing trends in the child care. The department provides student centered teaching and learning in conducive atmosphere that helps the students to gain confidence in their nursing knowledge and skills. This department is headed by Dr,(Mrs).T.Komalavalli,Principal,karpaga vinayaga college of nursing , kancheepuram Dt. The department consist of efficient faculties with high-tech knowledge and experts in teaching by using various methods and actively involved in research activities. The faculties are recognized as author for paediatric books, PG guide, examiner, question paper setters, guest speakers for various institutions and awarded for their service. The paediatric lab is well equipped and has attached class room for M.Sc (N) students with LCD projector and e-learning net facilities.